ABE'S DESCENDANT ADMITS SLAYING WIFE AT AURORA

Gruesome Details of Murder of Wife Confessed by

WIFE'S BROTHER SLAIN

Aurora Lawyer-Horticulturist
Tells of Burning Bodies
After Murder.

(By the Associated Press)
AURORA, Ill., Jan. 14.—Warren J. Lincoln, lawyer-horticulturist and distant relation of Abraham Lincoln, confessed last night that he killed his wife, Lina, dismembered her body and burned it in January, 1923, along with that of her brother, Byron Shoup, who, he maintained had been shot to death by Mrs. Lincoln.

Lincoln disappeared from his home April 30 last and his wife and Shoup were suspected of his murder. The lawyer-horticulturist suddenly re-appeared June 10 and explained his absence by saying that Mrs. Lincoln and Shoup had kidnapped him, only to disappear again four months later when whispers suggesting that possibility that he had slain his wife and brother-in-law reached him. The Aurora police told the Associated Press they were seeking Lincoln to question him concerning the disappearance of his wife and Shoup and that when he applied for a position in Chicago last Thursday learned of his address through the firm with which he sought employment and that arrested Saturday and confronted with charges that he had killed the brother and sister. Lincoln confessed, concluding with: "I am glad to get that load off my soul."

Tells of shooting.
"I suspected my wife with being untrue to me," Lincoln said when the detailed confession had been made and he was returning to his cell. "Many times she tried to poison me and finally I saw the man with whom she had been associated leave the house. That started the final quarrel."

"I saw fire flash from her eyes. She shot three times at Byron, who had upbraided her with being unfaithful and trying to kill me. Each bullet struck him in the head. He fell and I grabbed the poker. First I knocked the gun from her hand, then swung for her head. She fell dead. I cut up their bodies and burned them the next night."

Lincoln in his confession told he had observed with satisfaction how the police and newspapers had accepted the theory that he had been murdered. He told about travelling through various parts of the country. Lincoln collapsed at the end of his confession and the police left part of his story unrevealed. He admitted this morning inserting personal ads in newspapers signing them Lina, his wife's name, and checking on an Aurora bank where Shoup had a large account.

In each instance of ad or letter writing Lincoln is said to have used a typewriter with a green ribbon and it was through that means that police were aided in fastening the slaying of Mrs. Lincoln on him.

Dead Man Believed Suicide; Note Left to Explain Actions

(By the Associated Press)
PAWHUSKA, Jan. 14.—Henry Laveley, 23, was found dead today at the city pump station 14 miles west of here. The top of his head had been blown off. Beside him lay a shotgun and a cane. Officers said he had taken his life and used the cane to press the trigger.

On a table in his room was found this unaddressed and unsigned: "There is only one young lady I love and she refused to go to the show with me last night so I will cash in, bidding you all good-bye."

One in Death Row

McALESTER, Jan. 14.—Death row at the state penitentiary is silent today, only one person occupying a cell. He is Richard Birkes sentenced to death for the killing of a bank cashier at Ketchum. He declared today that he still hopes for a new hearing as an appeal is pending in his case. Birkes' execution is set for February 1.

Medical Wizard of National Fame Dies at San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Dr. Albert Abrams, internationally known physician and founder of spondylotherapy and more recently inventor of apparatus with which he claimed he could diagnose diseases by testing a drop of blood, died at his home here last night of pneumonia.

WIFE OF HOTEL MAN DIES HERE

Mrs. F. J. McFarland Succumbs Following Operation; Interment Here.

Mrs. Minnie Georg Ana McFarland, wife of F. J. McFarland of the Harris Hotel, died this morning at 3 o'clock at the Ada Hospital, following a very serious operation Saturday afternoon in the banquet room of the hotel. Rev. C. L. Widney, assisted by Rev. C. C. Morris, in charge. Interment will take place in Rose-dale cemetery at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. McFarland came to Ada several years ago when Mr. McFarland bought the Harris Hotel. She at once entered into the life of the community and has been prominent in movements for the betterment of the city since that time. She was a member of the Episcopal church.

The immediate family consists of the husband and one daughter, Mrs. T. D. Gillette, both of whom were at the bedside when death came.

The deceased has been troubled for some time, the trouble increasing the last ten days. An operation was felt necessary to save her life, but the body proved too weak to withstand the shock and recover, and the end came peacefully this morning. Death had been expected, but even at that, proved a severe blow to those who held her dear.

ANOTHER BONUS BILL BEFORE SENATE NOW

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Another soldier's bonus bill was proposed in the senate today. It is sponsored by Senator Bursum, Republican of New Mexico, and calls for the return to the veterans or their families all insurance premiums deducted from their pay and the percentage of their subscriptions to Liberty bonds while in service, plus additional compensation at the rate of $20 per month for each month of service.

Payments would be made in cash over a period of four years, one-fourth of the veterans to be paid each year in full, or in the form of insurance as they might elect. The insurance would be payable at death on the basis of $400 for each $100 cash due or the policy might be surrendered at the end of 20 years at its cash value based upon the annual premium plus four per cent interest.

John Ashley Not Elusive To Ada Enforcement Head

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 14.—John Ashley, notorious Florida outlaw, hasn't always found eluding the officers of the law so easy a task. And his belief, if he had any, in the old adage that lightning never strikes twice in the same place was considerably shaken back in 1914 and 1915 when he was twice captured by T. E. Brents, special officer in the Indian service. Brents is now a federal prohibition officer in Oklahoma City.

Brents' first capture was made single handed in the heart of the Everglades. Brents talks but little about his achievement. He was assigned to get Ashley and he got him. And the story:

In December, 1911, Desoto Tiger, a Seminole Indian, was on his way to Miami, Fla., to sell his catch of otter hides. Ashley, a ruffian and outlaw, waylaid him along the river canal and killed the Indian for the hides. Just how the murder occurred is not brought out clearly, but Ashley, it is said, had been drinking, and it is probable that he had given the Seminole some of the liquor.

Ashley took the skins to Miami where he sold them for $384 and then proceeded to get on a glorious drunk. He was arrested a few days later, but as Desoto Tiger was "only an Indian" he was released on $25 bond. The case dragged. The Seminoles lost all confidence that they might have had in the government and Ashley continued his depredations against the Indians.

Then Brents Came On
Washington then assigned Brents to the case. He was then with the liquor suppression force in the Indian service and had already made a record showing efficiency and courage in his work. Without asking for a posse or help he plunged into the Everglades in search of the outlaw. On the night of April 26, 1914, he had gathered sufficient information to enable him to locate Ashley. Accompanied by a Rev. McDonald, formerly of Muskogee, he had driven from Stuart to the edge of the glades in a wagon. Leaving the wagon there he and his companion plunged into the muck and water of the Florida morasses.

Just at daybreak he effected the capture five miles west of Gomez. A hammock, or willow head, in which the outlaw was hiding was fired. It burned like a match box. Brents said Ashley surrendered without offering resistance, but Joe Ashley the father, escaped. During the night Brents had waded and floundered through mud and water up to his hips in many places. Ashley was brought back and turned over to the authorities. While in jail, a brother Bob Ashley, came to see him. He had dyed his hair red, but the wife of the jailer recognized him and started to drive him off with a rifle. Bob shot and killed Wilbur Hendrickson, the jailer and started to leave town. Rippet, a motor cycle officer started in pursuit and in the battle that followed they killed each other.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The night over American entrance into the League of Nations, smoldering since 1920, is flaming anew. The whole battle staged after the return of Wilson from Paris is likely to be refought on a larger scale, with old leaders under new flags and party lines less pronounced.

The spark in the powder house is the Bok prize peace plan now being voted on over the country. It provides for American entrance in the international court and conditional participation in the affairs of the League. The author of it will not be officially announced until after the balloting is concluded in February but it is declared here that the prize-winning plan is the work of Mr. and Mrs. William Atherton Dupuy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dupuy are journalists. Mr. Dupuy recently returned from Geneva, Switzerland, where he held an official position with the League of Nations. His wife is prominent in the affairs of the League of American Pen Women. The prize offered by Bok was $100,000, half of which was to be paid on approval of the plan by popular vote, and the other $50,000 at such time as the plan appeared to be potent.

The irreconcilables already are showing their teeth at the proposition outlined in the plan. And they are voicing their disapproval of the manner in which the winner was chosen. Medill McCormick, speaking in the senate, charged that the award was made by a packed jury, meaning that those who passed on the many plans submitted were almost without exception exponents of American adherence to the League of Nations. The members of the committee were Elihu Root, lawyer; chairman; James G. Harbord, former deputy chief of staff of the army; William Allen White, editor; Roscoe Pound, dean of Harvard Law School; Edward M. House friend of Woodrow Wilson; Ellen Fitz Peleton, president of Wellesley College, and Brand Whitlock, diplomat.

If the plan is approved by popular vote, and it is a foregone conclusion here that it will be, a tremendous fight to put it into effect is going to be made. The irreconcilables, backed by strength by no means negligible, are ready to fight to a finish. The opposition to the plan is of course centered on the conditional participation in League of Nations affairs. American adherence to the international court isn't as strongly contested.

William Atherton Dupuy, who with Mrs. Dupuy is prematurely given credit for the plan, has been a newspaperman all his life, but has had some experience in warfare in between (He was a captain in the military intelligence division of the general staff in 1918.) For a while he was field secretary of the Navy League.

Bandits Carry Off Fortune in Booze From Warehouse

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 14.—Eight or 10 bandits early today broke into the warehouse of Pierce, Butler & Pierce, bound and gagged the watchmen and carried off two truck loads of bonded whiskey valued at $60,000. John Brown, the watchman, sounded the alarm by rolling to a telephone and kicking it over.

Brown said two bandits went to the fifth floor and loaded the cases of liquor in an elevator. The cases were carried from the building on two motor trucks.

Meanwhile, he said the other thieves forced him to make his rounds and sound his customary signals. When the liquor was on the truck he was bound and gagged.

CONTENTION HOT FOR CONVENTION

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—A panorama of presidential prospects has been proposed for the members of the Democratic national committee who will meet here tomorrow to select a convention city and transact other business of the party.

Friends of potential candidates for the nomination will vigorously present the claims of their candidates.

Selection of the convention city is expected to be sharply contested with supporters of various candidates jockeying for geographical position and with financial offers from the contesting cities admitted by an important factor in view of the committee treasury deficit of about $180,000.

Bids from at least six cities are ready for the committee's consideration, but the contest is thought to center between New York, Chicago and St. Louis. San Francisco, Atlanta and Louisville, however, are expected to present strong inducements.

Chicago's bid will be backed by an offer of $125,000. The New York delegation also is understood to be ready to make a large cash offer to get the convention.

Isidore B. Dockwelder, California national committeeman, declared that San Francisco would present a certified check for $200,000 for the convention and in addition to it would provide the use of its municipal auditorium where the 1920 convention was held.

"With such an offer as this, we shall expect to be successful," Mr. Dockwelder said.

Although it had been expected that Atlanta would present a bid for the convention Clark Howell, national committeeman from Georgia, said today that no Atlanta invitation would be extended.

Program of Economy Slated to be Taken From Committee Report.

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 14.—Both houses of the state legislature convened shortly before 2 p. m. today to complete the extraordinary session which was recessed December 8.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 14.—Plans for sine die adjournment of the state legislature at 3 o'clock today were agreed to shortly before the session was to be resumed at 1:30 o'clock by a group of legislators, who said they represented a majority in both houses. Opposition to this program was voiced at the same time by other members.

John Carlock, state senator from Ardmore, led in the opposition to adjournment.

"The legislature can wind up its program in 20 days and I believe members ought to be willing to give nine days to the state," he asserted.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 14.—The belief that the special session of the Oklahoma state legislature would end within a few hours after its resumption today following a recess of several weeks, grew as the hour for the reconvening drew near. Both houses were to come to order at 1:30 p. m. Observers pointing to the fact that only 11 days remain in which legislators can draw $6 a day salary declared that the only action to be taken will be the signing of the anti-Klax Klan bill by Speaker W. D. McBee of the house after which both branches will adjourn and request Gov. Trapp to call a second extraordinary session. The Klan bill was passed before the December recess.

This, they declare, will give the legislators time before the $6 a day limit expires in which to go into the extensive financial retrenchment program said to have been prepared by the joint survey committee during the recess as well as to hear reports of the house investigating committee and take whatever action that may grow out of the reports.

Several members of the legislature have indicated it would be a real hardship for them to remain here indefinitely at $2 a day salary which would be effective January 25.

It was said at the capitol today that 60 bills are ready for submission by the survey committee.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 14.—Oklahoma legislators back at their desks today from the holiday recess, which took effect December 8, face a session which probably will be devoted almost entirely to the enactment of legislation reducing the expenses of the state government and the burden of the taxpayer. The senate and house were both scheduled to meet at 1:30 p. m.

A number of bills, calling for the reduction of departments and personnel, changing tax laws, eliminating state institutions, wiping out bureaus and branches, will be introduced in the senate, many of them by Senator Joseph C. Looney of Seminole county, who has been preparing the bills for the senate survey committee which functioned throughout the recess.

In the house the investigating committee which has inquired into the operation of many of the state offices, departments and institutions probably will make its report tomorrow. James R. Tolbert of Hobart is chairman of this committee. The other members are W. S. Vernon, Coweta; J. B. Harper, Pottawatomie; G. S. Van Dali, Bartlesville; John Miller, Tulsa; Jess Pullen, Sulphur; Price Thompson, El Reno; C. E. Thornley, Durant; Gordon Gray, Chickasha; Leslie Salter; Carmen; T. H. Wren, Okemah; D. T. Wooten, Kingston; L. R. Lowry, Jackson; Fred Hansen, Walters; W. F. Varum, Seminole; W. J. Otjen, Enid; John M. Bell, Tonkawa and F. H. Berry, Muskogee.

While some legislators believe the session will not last longer than three weeks, the majority think it will go 60 days.

With the exception of the new days at Christmas and New Year's the survey committee and the investigating body have worked every day during the recess which began early in December. The survey committee, with Senator John Carlock, Ardmore, as chairman, prepared a mass of bills calling for economy in government. Other members of the committee are: Harry B. Cordell, Tillman county; L. P. Bobo, Wilbourn; Charles McPherson, Durant; Ira Hill, Beckham; Tom Anglin, president of the senate and (Continued on Page Two)

"Miss America" Declares Tanlac Wonderful Health Giving Tonic

Miss Campbell in "Miss America" crown which she has won on two occasions.

Miss Mary Katherine Campbell twice proclaimed "Miss America," has taken TANLAC and endorses it in a statement recently given to the women of America through the International Proprietaries. In this statement, Miss America declares that Good Health is the basis of all Beauty, and advises women who would be beautiful to "first find good health."

Her complete statement as given is as follows: "I consider it a great privilege to be able to tell the thousands of women everywhere what a great tonic TANLAC is. Health is the basis of all beauty. Without good health, one is apt to be run down, nervous, underweight, high-strung, anemic. Indigestion drives the roses from a woman's cheeks and robs her of that radiant quality of womanhood that is real beauty.

"I have taken TANLAC and I do not hesitate to say that it is a wonderful health-giving tonic. It has brought relief and good health to many women, and with good health one may have a measure of beauty that will overcome shortcomings in face and figure.

"Rosy cheeks, sparkling eyes, a well-rounded figure, a lovable disposition, go hand in hand with good health. I would say—'First of all, Find Good Health.' The TANLAC treatment has proven itself a boon to womanhood, and I recommend it."

Miss Campbell has written a booklet on Health and Beauty which may be secured by filling out the coupon below.

Little Rock Would Offer Green Berth

While Ada's reputation of making baseball players has been credited somewhat to the efforts of A. O. Green, druggist-manager, the Little Rock Club of the Southern association was the first to herald Green as a prospective player after years have added to his baseball form.

While Green has assumed the physical form of a baseball magnate, the Little Rock club was unaware of his rotund proportions and sought to secure his services as a player, stating that they would develop him and asked for his lowest terms.

Green was reminiscent today about the offer to play with the Little Rock club but it is thought that he will be induced to remain in Ada and manage the baseball club as well as send more players to the big shows.

The letter from the Little Rock club seeking to sign Green as a player follows:
Mr. A. O. Green,
Ada, Okla.,
Dear Sir:

If you desire to sign with the club for 1924 please let me know your very lowest terms. You probably know of our reputation of sending players up and of our being able to develop players.

Awaiting your early reply I am,
Your very truly,
R. G. ALLEN.

JOHN ASHLEY NOT ELUSIVE TO BRENTS

Beach on February 15, and by February 25, he again had the renegade in custody. Trial in West Palm Beach county was started, but Ashley had too much political influence and too many friends there to suit Brents and he got a change of venue to Dade county after he had succeeded in getting every one of 900 voters in West Palm Beach county disqualified in the case.

The first Seminoles ever to appear in a white man's court appeared as witnesses in the case, and Brents was largely responsible for restoring the Indians' confidence in the government.

Ashley was convicted and sentenced to be hanged by Judge Brannin. His sentence was later commuted and he was sent to the Ralston prison camp.

Brents expressed belief that John Ashley never will be taken alive.

Shriff Bob Baker, who is on Ashley's trail at this time is the son of G. B. Baker, who was sheriff at the time Brents made his capture. The sheriff aided Brents in gaining information of the outlaw's movements.

Sheep are now being raised extensively in the Aleutian Islands.

Millinery class will be started in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in the Convention Hall, Wednesday evening at 7:30. Class will be open to all those who might be interested.

Coughing—a futile waste of strength—

MEDICAL authorities agree that coughing aggravates the irritation in throat and lungs that is causing the cough and therefore only makes you cough the more. Control the cough and the irritation is soon relieved.

Dr. King's New Discovery stops coughing quickly by gently stimulating the mucous membranes to throw off clogging secretions. Harmlessly and effectively the violent throat and chest spasms are quieted, and the inflammation then quickly clears away. It has an agreeable taste. All druggists.

Constant hacking only makes a cough worse.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

A MAN THAT HATH FRIENDS must shew himself friendly; and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.—Proverbs. 18:24.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS.

What's everybody's business is nobody's business! That has been the rule of life ever since the well known "Heck" was a pup.

And as long as everybody pays no attention to nobody's business and nobody pays attention to everybody's business, there will continue to be high tax rates, inefficiency in government and all of the lesser attendant evils.

The fellow who kicks the loudest about the way things are being run is always the last to volunteer to help, or even offer a conservative suggestion.

Then there is the type of citizen who is so engrossed with his own business—which consists of the gentle art of making money—that he never has time to think of his own community or the welfare of others.

Other types we see daily, engaged in this or that hobby, wholly oblivious to what is going on about them. They never give a thought to the betterment of things about them.

The beginning of the new year is a time for being optimistic. If there is any trace of pessimism left in our systems, we should throw it off before stepping on the 1924 platform.

While we are turning over a new leaf, we should all resolve to make the new year better by devoting a little less time to our own affairs and a little more in the service of others.

The public good deserves consideration from every individual. Let's make a resolution to reserve a little time for that duty during the new year and never refuse when we are called upon to do something that we don't have to do, but which will be for the betterment of the whole community.—Wilburton News-Democrat.

The remarkable thing that the legislature which is now showing so much commendable zeal in cutting down the cost of state government is composed of the same men who made the big appropriations last winter. For one thing, this interesting fact may indicate that the man in the governor's office has much influence in the matter of public expenditures. Apparently Mr. Walton's motto was "Spend the money," but Mr. Trapp has ideas that are radically different. He has urged retrenchment and the legislators are assured of his utmost co-operation in all efforts to conduct the state's business on an economical basis.—Chickasha Express.

NUTTY!

Citizens of Carter county have for the past few years been giving special attention to pecan culture and according to the Ardmoreite are now preparing a bill which will ask the legislature to pass, providing for the employment of an expert who will devote his entire time to the matter. Some nutty proposition we call it.

An Oklahoma City report says that Governor Trapp is wearing a hat won as a bet made many years ago with John Fields. Evidently the gubernatorial bee was buzzing in the hat of each of them even then for the bet provided that the man who realized his ambition first should win the hat. It is not stated whether John's bee went along with the hat he gave Trapp.

"Forward Ardmore" is the latest slogan of our sister city. Pretty good dope it is too. Incidentally we might remark that Ada is going to follow this same sentiment and Ardmore will have to get a hustle on herself if she keeps up with the procession.

Now that the legislature is in session again if the members have any doubt about they will have no difficulty in getting suggestions and directions by the ton lot. The only trouble is that no two citizens of the state have the same notion about what should be done.

At this distance it looks as if Coolidge and Johnson may have the Republican ring all to themselves. It will be a finish fight between conservative and radical wings of the party with the odds in favor of Coolidge.

Dr. Coue, mental suggestion wizard, is returning to America for another round such as he enjoyed some months ago. Perhaps the good doctor thinks some of his converts are in danger of backsliding and need a fresh bacing up.

If the legislature should go ahead with its session and spend a few days working at the reduced scale of $2 per, it is a safe bet that more work would be accomplished in one short day than two or three at the present rate. A lean diet is a wonderful stimulator.

There is a great demand for houses in Ada at this time. Before long somebody must begin building residences here, or many families will have to move away. It all goes to show that Ada is growing.

Five thousand British ex-soldiers are banded together in a new secret order called the "Order of the Crusaders." Lt. Gen. Sir Edward Bethune is head of the new body, with the official title of Grand Keeper of the Records. He denies the organization is opposed to the Jews.

Militia Bureau at Washington Ready for Aerial Force

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 14.—The militia bureau at Washington has been asked to authorize the organization here of a national guard air squadron, and plans for enlistment of personnel already is under way under the guidance of local reserve air service officers and commercial aviators.

The Flying club of Oklahoma with headquarters here, is back of the move. More than 60 air service reserve officers, living in this vicinity, petitioned the militia bureau for the squadron, according to local aviation officials in charge of the work.

Representative E. B. Howard, Senators Harrell and Owen and Mayor Newblock also are pushing plans for the new squadron.

Brigadier General Alva J. Niles and Adjutant General B. H. Markham have endorsed the petition, according to flying club officials.

In the event the plan is approved the squadron will be organized immediately and active flying will start in early spring, according to Capt. H. H. Motzebue of the air service. Airplanes, machine guns and other equipment will be requisitioned from the war department and the local field will be the base of operations, he declared.

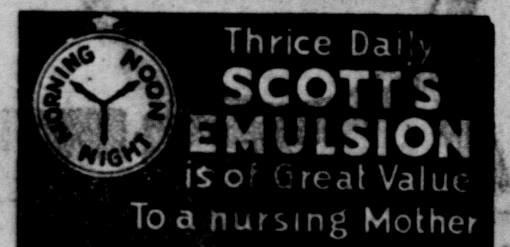

Re-Surfacing of Roads to Benefit Northern Oklahoma

(By the Associated Press)
MUSKOGEE, Okla., Jan. 14.—Re-surfacing of roads between this city and Tulsa will bring greater trade to Northeast Oklahoma this year and eliminate the hazards experienced by the motorists who have passed over these roads in the past year, according to state highway officials who are supervising the work.

Gravel has been laid on most of the highway between Broken Arrow and Coweta and soon the entire road will be in such condition as to compare favorably with most of the paved highways in the state, the officials said.

Last year many motorists in cars and trucks would not attempt the trip from Tulsa to this city because of the bad roads.

Northeast Oklahoma Seeking Settlers to Farm New Lands

(By the Associated Press)
CLAREMORE, Okla., Jan. 14.—Some 4,000,000 farmers scattered throughout the country will be asked to consider locating in Northeast Oklahoma within the next month if plans of the Northeastern Oklahoma Chamber of Commerce are carried into effect, it was announced here at the local chamber of commerce, which is affiliated with the northeastern chamber.

Twenty-four counties in this state are embraced in the land offered to any farmer who would desire to settle in this district, according to the chamber.

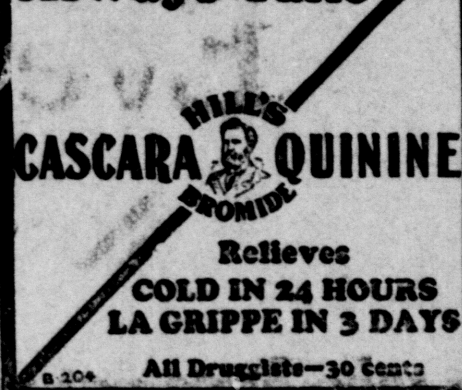

A program of advertising has been launched by the chamber, telling of the vast tracts of land left idle in the area.

"This is not a boom proposition," E. Bee Githrey, secretary of the organization, said "but merely a plan to be followed in developing agriculture in Oklahoma."

CAPE TOWN.—The appointment of Clifton Poole as United States Consul General for South Africa has created a favorable impression here. The Cape Times regards the appointment as leading to the day when the United States will accredit ministers to and receive ministers from the dominions.

The newspaper also says Mr. Poole will be welcomed in South Africa as one more sign of the firm establishment of dominion status in the eyes of the world.

 SLIM RETURNS DISCOURAGE PLAYWRITING IN GERMANY
 HAMBURG, —Alfred Brust, playwright, is not over-enthusiastic about earning a living in Germany by writing for the stage. His "South Seas," recently put on in this city, yielded him a royalties a sum in paper makes equal to five gold pfennings, or one and a quarter cents.
 Brust bought a postage stamp and sent it to the theatrical agency which had put on his play, with his thanks for the manner in which the product of his imagination had been handled.

PEACE PLANS

FILM INSPIRED BY MEMORY OF WRITER

"On the Banks of the Wabash," which was inspired by Paul Dresser's famous song and which is showing at the American today, is a gripping story laid in a little town along the banks of the Wabash river in the very neighborhood where Dresser lived in his boyhood. It is a gripping heart-interest story with a tremendous climax which includes a remarkable flood and fire sequence essential to the plot.

Mr. Blackton recalled that he himself was one of Dresser's friends when the song writer lived in New York City and that he had approached the translating of Dresser's sentiment to the screen with reverence because of his affection for the Indiana writer.
 Prominent members of the Indiana Society of New York City were greatly enthused over the picture of Dresser's famous song. They realized that the screen immortalizes for all time the beautiful sentiment in the poem which made it the most popular old home song ever written.

 "On the Banks of the Wabash" is played by an exceptionally fine cast. In the juvenile roles are found Madge Evans, James Morrison and Mary McLaren. Mary Carr plays a mother role. Lumsden Hare is seen as an aspiring artist. Burr McIntosh portrays "Cap" Hammond, retired stern-wheeler captain.

JAPANESE PRIESTS DECIDE UPON REVOLUTIONARY POLICY
 TOKIO.—The priests of the Hwaui temples in Tokyo and Kyoto have adopted a revolutionary policy, deciding that in future their services will be given instead of the dead.
 From days immemorial the first duty of the priests of these temples has been to care for the dead and to preside at funeral services. Hereafter, however, they will devote themselves to the social welfare of the people.
 This is a significant change in the Buddhist policy in Japan and may revolutionize, in the opinion of people here, the whole world of Buddhism.

Anthrax Depletes Carabao.
 MANILA—Anthrax has made such inroads among the work animals, chiefly carabao or water buffalo, in central Luzon that paralysis of agricultural activities is threatened. Thousands of carabao have died from the disease in the last few weeks, and all available veterinarians have been detailed to the infected area in an attempt to stamp it out.
 "With the $60,000 just appropriated by the legislature," said Secretary of Agriculture Apostol, "a systematic campaign against anthrax, including careful, thorough and complete quarantine and vaccination of every animal in the infected area, is made possible."

OKMULGEE—Billy Raines, 12, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Raines, is the latest addition to the staff of pages in the house and senate of the Oklahoma legislature. Billy was named special page of W. C. McBeck, speaker of the house. Billy is in the eighth grade of grammar school here. He was given a leave of absence to serve in the house.

Carnival Gayeties of Canadian Winter Sport Centers Lure Many Americans Across the Border Each Winter

GOING DOWN! SPEEDY TRAVELING BY TOBOGGANS ON QUEBEC'S SLIDE

Have you ever spent one of the white months in Canada? If not, there is still a delightful experience in store for you. Winter in Canada is synonymous with winter sports. With the advent of ice and snow these sports begin; skis, sleds, toboggans, skates, snowshoes, hockey and lacrosse clubs, together with warm, gay sport costumes, make their appearance. A psychological change takes place in the social atmosphere, merriment radiates its contagion, briskness characterizes all outdoor movement.

For many years Quebec and Montreal have been Mecca for a large number of American winter sport lovers, who flock to these two cities on the St. Lawrence during carnival seasons. There are many other Canadian points where organized sport is a winter feature. St. John has its skating tournament in which many professionals participate. Sherbrooke, Quebec, has planned an elaborate skiing contest and is providing some splendid trophies as awards.

Grey Rocks Inn, an all-the-year-round resort in the Laurentian Mountains, 85 miles northwest of Montreal, offers aeroplane-ski-joring in addition to many other winter sports. Winnipeg will set aside the week of February 4-11, for carnival festivities which are projected on a vast scale, in addition to the great annual bonspiel, lasting several weeks, will be staged as usual. Banff in the Canadian Rockies, which is fast becoming as popular in winter as it has long been in summer, is planning to do former efforts. Winter sports are enjoyed there all through the white season and will culminate in a gay carnival lasting from Feb. 9 to 16, the last two days being devoted to a bonspiel. Dog races are a feature of Banff's winter season and famous teams from Le Pas will run at Banff. Le Pas will celebrate in carnival style from March 8 to 15, during which period the famous 200-mile non-stop dog-team race will be run. Revelstoke, a stronghold of ski-jumping, will stage contests Feb. 5th and 6th. Both Montreal and Quebec

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

Say Enid Bennett and you see pretty Maid Marian waiting for her lover Robin Hood, to return from the crusade, or as the heroine of her husband's (Fred Niblo) film version of "Captain Applejack," or "Strangers of the Night," as they tried to call it only the title would stick.

One has a very vivid recollection of her as "Captain Applejack's" cabin boy listening to the plotting of the rebel crew or in modern feminine attire creeping along the outside wall of the old castle with the wind threatening to blow her on to the rocks and into the sea below if her enemies did not knock her there in their efforts to wrest from her the old paper wherein were inscribed the directions for finding the pirate's treasure.

She has lately been working in "The Fool's Awakening," for Metro, adapted from William J. Locke's "The Tale of Triona." Harrison Ford plays opposite her in this picture. It is scheduled for early release.

Now Miss Bennett is to play the part of Rosamond Godolphin in Frank Lloyd's production of Sabatini's "The Sea Hawk" for first National. Milton Sills has the role of the "Hawk."

Enid Bennett came to America from Australia in 1915, having met and married Fred Niblo during his visit there. For a time she played on the legitimate with Otis Skinner in "Cock of the Walk," and then stepped into films under Thos. H. Ince.

Lloyd Hughes, "the handsomest leading man on the screen," is to play a leading part in "The Sea Hawk," and Wallace MacDonald, Wallace Berry, Frank Currier, Mme. Meda Rezina, late of the Moscow Art Theater, William Collier, Jr., and Christine Montt, a newcomer to the screen, all have important parts.

Thos. H. Ince, director of "The Last Frontier," swears he was not Telling a story of intrigue, adventure and love, it centers about a young noblewoman who masquerades as a man and lives among the hardened characters of the South African veldt, fighting the curse of ponjola, the soul destroying drink of that country and fighting those who seek to destroy the man she loves.

It is a powerful picture of virile men and romantic women, of lust, hate and love—a highly dramatic picture that contains every essential of a perfect photodrama.

Its interpretation is in the hands of a most brilliant cast, including Anna Q. Nilsson, James Kirkwood, Tully Marshall, Ruth Clifford, Joseph Kilgour, Edwin Sturgis, Joseph McDowell, Claire Du Brey and Bernard Randall.

TULSA OIL EXPOSITION TO BE GREATER SHOW

(By the Associated Press)

TULSA, Jan. 12.—Exhibitors from all parts of the United States already have retained space for the second annual International Petroleum Exposition, to be held here this fall, and the showing, from present appearances, will be at least twice as large as the initial exposition held here last year, according to William Holden, director.

Virtually every large oil company in the United States has requested space. Temporary steel buildings will be erected again this year to house the exhibits, but these probably will not be adequate to handle all the equipment that will be shown, Holden declared.

If this year's exposition proves as successful, financially, as last year's, the exposition executives will build a permanent hall to house further exhibits, which will be the largest of its kind in the state, according to their announcement.

Martial law and other adverse conditions existed here during last year's exposition and prevented as large a showing as the executive contemplated. But with prosperity, such as now has been forecast for the mid-continent area, Tulsa will see the largest assemblage of mechanical exhibits and spectators that ever have been congregated in the Southwest, Holden predicted.

An election of officers is to be held soon. The new board of directors for this year consists of: L. B. Jackson, W. A. W. Vandever, J. M. Haynes, W. N. Holden, A. V. Bourque, J. J. McGraw, Alf G. Heggen, T. J. Hartman, J. W. Gardner, W. M. Welch and Frank Hinccliter.

America Will Send Exhibits To Barcelona Poultry Show

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The poultry breeders of the United States intend to be well represented at the second World's Poultry Congress to be held at Barcelona, Spain, May 10-16, 1924. It is realized that America has made notable contributions to this industry, and that there should be this year no repetition of the condition which obtained at the first congress held at The Hague in 1921, when the American exhibits were far from adequate or representative.

Reports of Barcelona indicate that almost every country where the poultry business has attained significance is interested. In many cases official delegates have been named. Latin America will be represented. In the southern land the industry is being developed rapidly, and there is a keen demand for breeding stock.

Annual Livestock Summary
OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 14.—The State Board of Agriculture estimates, from the reports of its correspondents, decreases in the number of all kinds of livestock on farms as of January 1. There are approximately 616,000 head less of all classes of stock on farms in Oklahoma than at this time last year. While the number of head decreased only slightly in some classes of stock, hogs decreased materially both in numbers and price. The large decrease of hogs is readily attributed to low prices which were not at all commensurate with the price of corn.

The average price paid for stock of all ages has caused a reduction of over $18,000,000 in total values this year as compared with last. All classes of stock fell in price this year with the exception of mules, which price remained the same as last year.

The average price paid for stock from all sections this year is indicated in a report of the Oklahoma National Stock Yards Company. They report an increase in receipts this year over last of over 6,000 head of cattle, over 26,000 head of calves and nearly 4,000 head of horses and mules. Hogs and sheep both show decreases in receipts.

The average loss per 100 head during the year due to exposure, disease, etc., is as follows: horses 5, mules 3, milk cows 4, other cattle 5, sheep 4 and hogs 8.

Whole Tone of Political Life in England Lowered, Says, M. P.

(By the Associated Press)

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE. — Politicians in England have reached a depth of degradation unknown even in the old days of rotten boroughs, said Austen Hopkins, Conservative member for the Mossley division, in a recent speech here. He asserted there had been a distinct lowering of the whole tone of political life, the Parliaments in succession getting worse and worse.

"The amount of lying, slander and utter lack of patriotism or real love for the welfare of the people," he continued, "baffles description. Unless young men and women do really set their minds to insist upon truth, honesty and patriotism in politics, then I say, heaven help this country."
